- If space not available to remove from waiting lists as of June 1, 2012.
- Under unusual circumstances with Lodge Professional Adviser Approval.

Since spaces are limited and waiting lists often develop no refunds of deposit will be made to participants who “decide not to go” “not longer interested”, something else came up etc.

ANY REQUESTS FOR REFUNDS OF OTHER PAYMENTS IN ADDITION TO INITIAL DEPOSIT WILL BE HANDLED BY THE CONTINGENT LEADERSHIP AND LODGE ADVISERS. ALL REQUESTS FOR REFUNDS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED IN WRITING TO THE ADULT CONTINGENT LEADER OR THE LODGE ADVISER. APPEALS CAN BE MADE THROUGH THE LODGE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

This is due to Council Expeditions having to make scheduled non-refundable non-transferable payments to National BSA, and transportation providers. In general, if an alternate IS NOT FOUND to replace the original participant refunds will be limited to the amount that is refunded to the expedition and Old North State Council.

IN UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES sickness or injury to participant or serious family situation refunds are also possible if participant has to drop out of expedition at a late date. In these cases the High Adventure Committee may be requested to review the situation and make the highest possible refund to the participant's family.
